Recommended Suppliers

1. VICH Wire Mesh Cable Tray VICH specializes in lightweight, open-mesh cable trays designed for easy installation and superior ventilation. Their products are durable, corrosion-resistant, and cost-effective, making them suitable for industrial plants, data centers, and commercial buildings. The modular design allows for quick maintenance and upgrades, which can reduce long-term costs . 2. Array Metal Industries Array Metal is a well-established Malaysian manufacturer offering a wide range of cable trays, including wire mesh types. They are known for competitive pricing while maintaining quality and reliability. Their products are suitable for industrial, commercial, and telecommunications applications, and they provide timely delivery across Malaysia . 3. Jeetmull Jaichandlall (P) Ltd. This company provides high-quality wire mesh cable trays in various sizes, shapes, and configurations. They focus on tailoring products to industry demands and maintaining excellent finishing standards. While pricing details are not explicitly listed, their emphasis on efficiency and one-stop manufacturing suggests potential cost savings for bulk orders .

Tips for Finding the Cheapest Option

- o Request quotes from multiple suppliers to compare prices for the same specifications.
- o Consider bulk orders as many manufacturers offer discounts for larger quantities.
- o Check for local distributors who may offer lower shipping costs within Malaysia.
- o Evaluate material type (electro-galvanized vs stainless steel) as it affects both price and durability. For the most affordable wire mesh cable trays, VICH and Array Metal are strong options to start with, while Jeetmull Jaichandlall can be considered for customized solutions.
